Wilderness Survival

Water Honor Basic

1. Name three symptoms of dehydration?
2. Explain and demonstrate the pinch test for dehydration.
3. What tends to build up more pathogens, lakes or streams?
4. Name three sources of water that you can trust.
5. If a river or stream has no water running in it, is it possible to still find water there?
6. Explain how to setup a wick in a bottle.
7. Explain the process of rock boiling.
8. Where can you NOT get your rocks for rock boiling?
9. How many feet of sand are needed to purify water?
10. Find a suitable spot on a lake shore or river bank and dig a gypsy well.
11. Name some plants that can be used for a straw.
12. Find some examples in the bible where God provided for His peoples water needs.

Wilderness Survival

Water Honor Advance

1. Name the four kinds of water borne pathogens.
2. Pick four sources of water you can't trust, and explain techniques you can use to purify them.
3. Make a try pod filter and filter some water with it.
4. Collect some rocks and rock boil some water. Rotate the rocks and keep it boiling for ten minutes.
5. Explain where you would use and how to build a sip well.
6. Explain some techniques for collecting rain water.
7. Set up one of these techniques so you will be ready if it rains.
8. Practice setting up a wick in a bottle so you can do it if you need to.
9. Can you trust water from melted snow?
10. Can you trust water from melted ice?
11. In the bible, God made a promise for His people about water in the end times. Find it and memorize it.